Alleghanian

West Allegheny Senior High School
Oakdale, Pennsylvania*

Dedication

We gratefully dedicate this issue of the Alleghanian to Dr. A. D. Wilson.

Dr. Wilson's regime with the West Allegheny Joint Schools encompasses the significant events and changes brought about by the jointure of North Fayette, Findlay, and Oakdale in the first six difficult and trying years. However, his tenure is far more reaching. He had been at the helm of the Findlay Schools since 1929 and has made his influence felt by the school, the citizens, the students, and the community for three decades.

During the years he has served the district, Dr. Wilson has introduced many products of his thought and experimentation into the school. However, the unknown and unreported influences of Dr. Wilson on the lives of West Allegheny students in thirty years will never be recounted. As Henry Adams said, "A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stays."

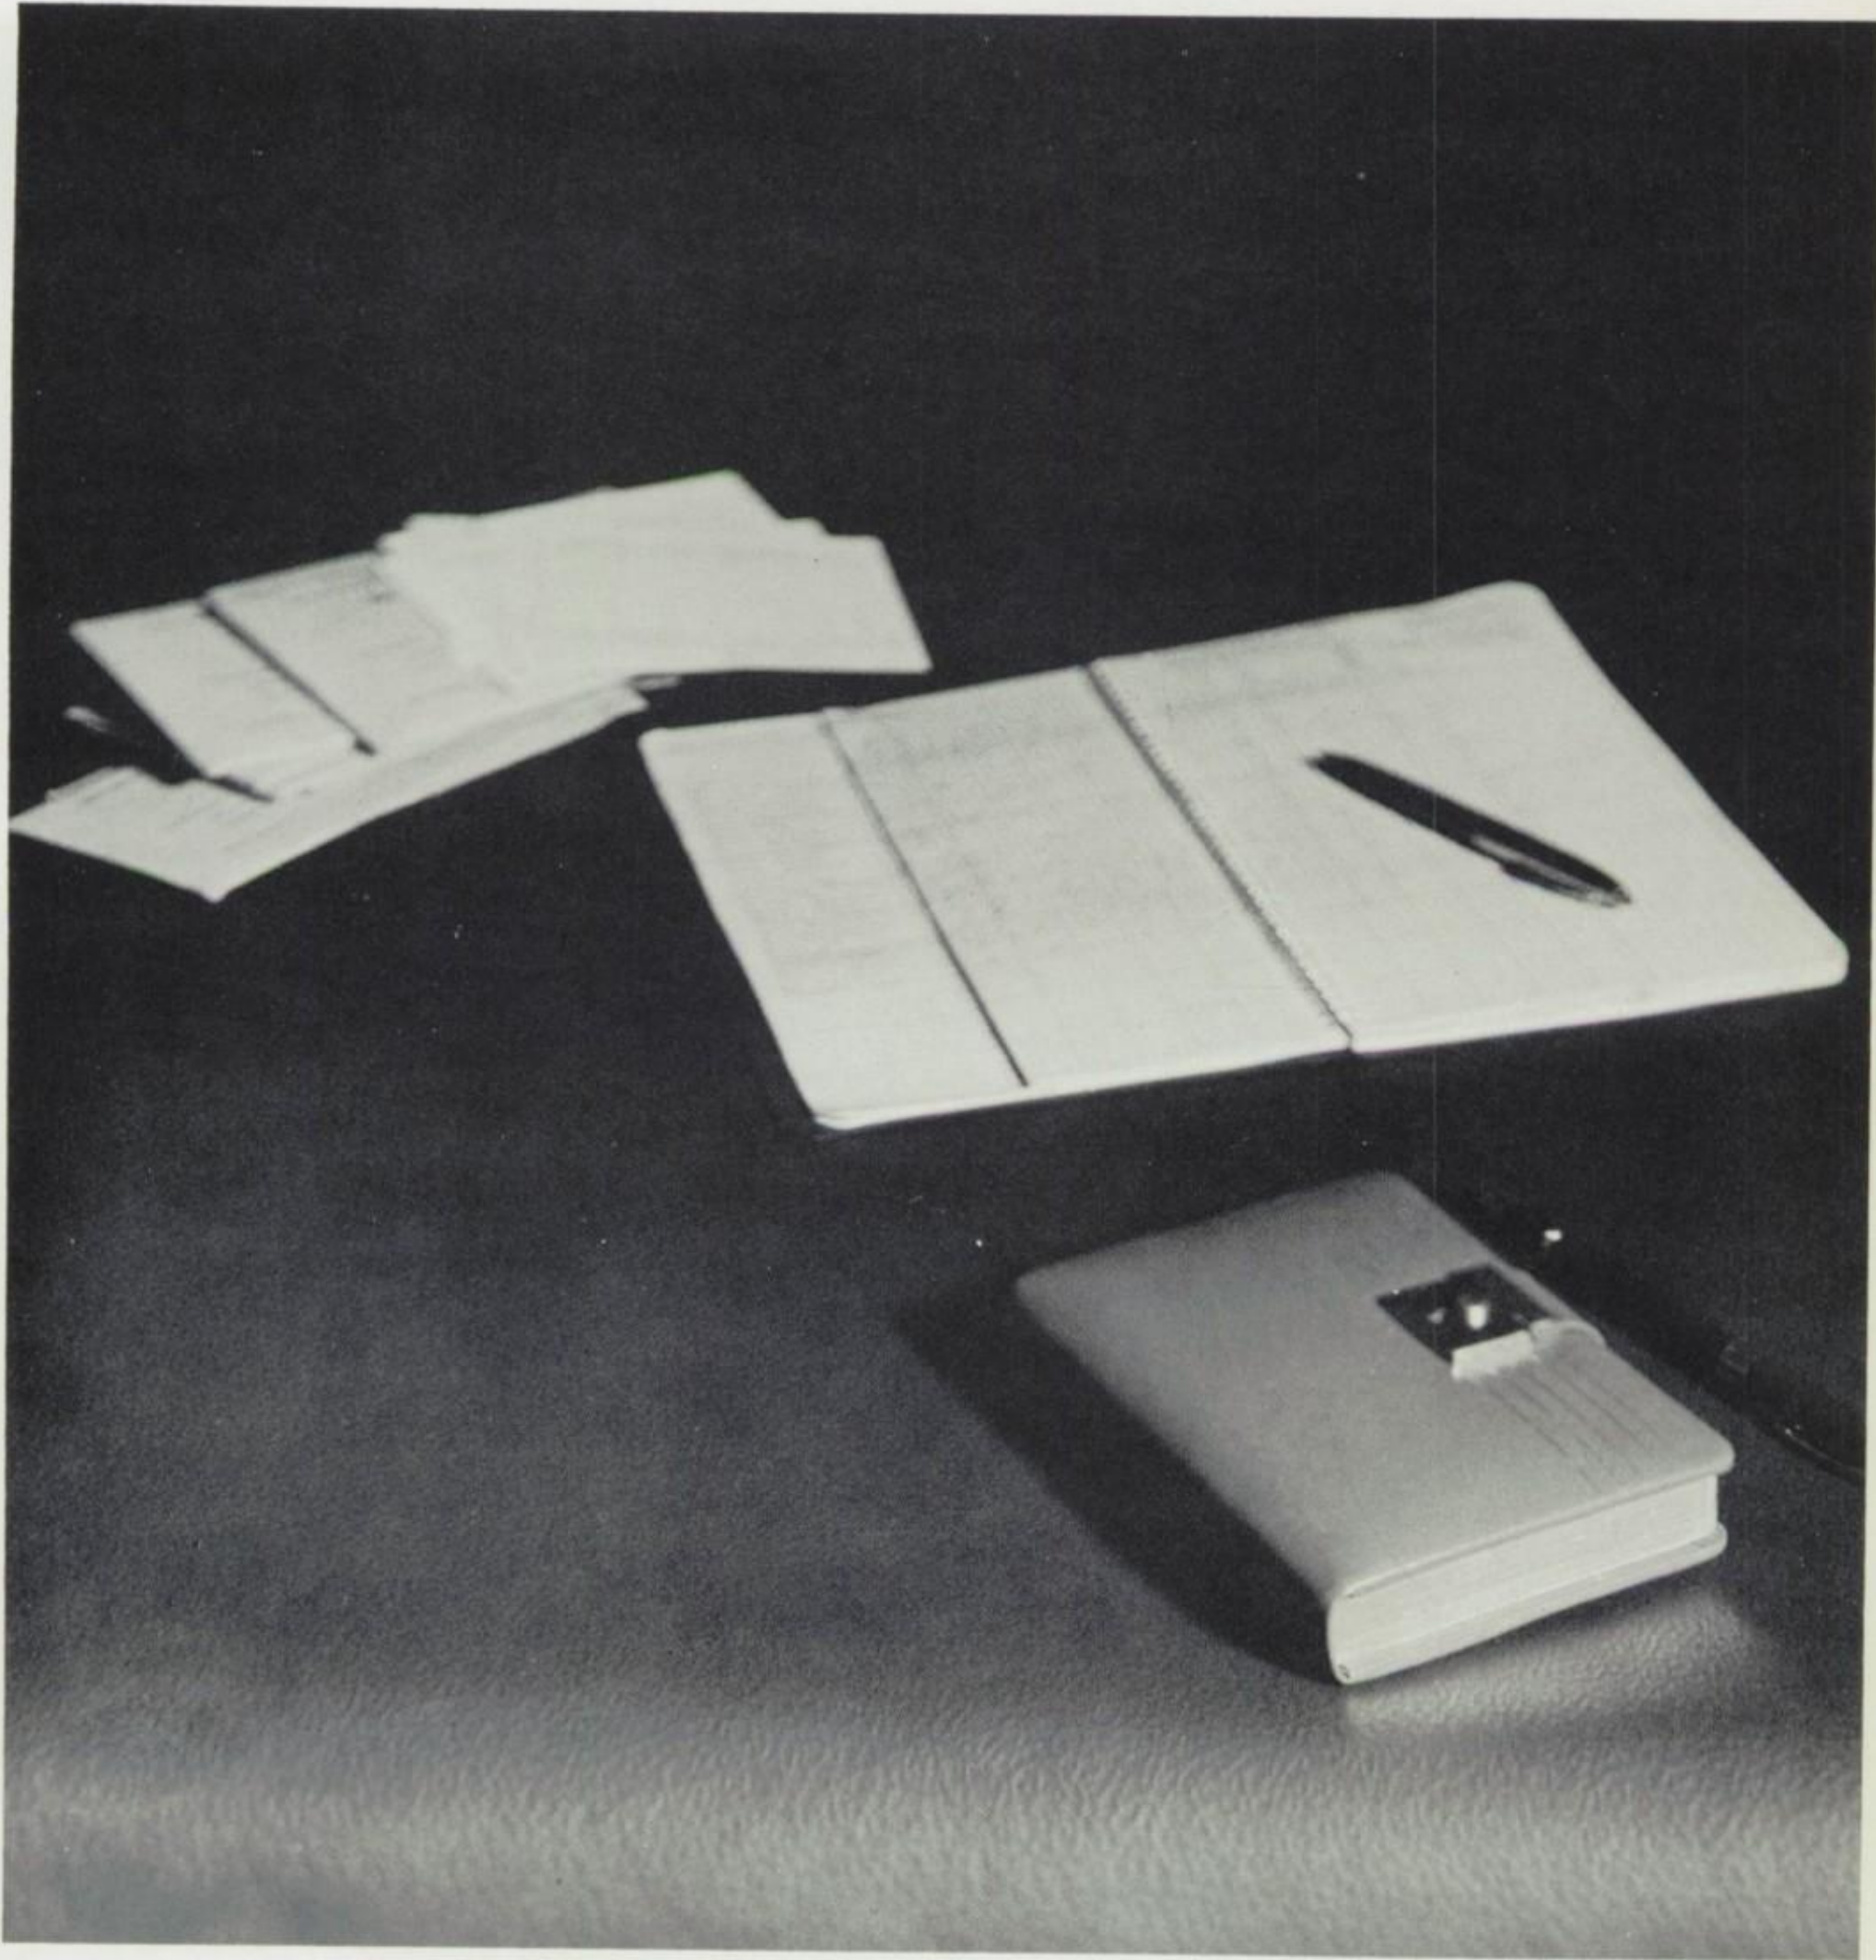

Dr. Wilson, as he is remembered, working at his desk as Supervising Principal of the West Allegheny Joint Schools.

On October 20, 1955 the West Allegheny Education Association honored Dr. Wilson on his retirement with a testimonial dinner and reception. Present at the affair were many of the teachers who had been associated with Dr. Wilson, many other educators of the area and many lifelong friends and acquaintances that Dr. Wilson had made in his many fruitful years of association in the field of education.

Honored guests at the dinner with Dr. Wilson were Mrs. Wilson, a member of the faculty of the Junior High School, and other members of his family.

Administration

We remember the pleased expressions of the teachers when dismissal came; the glowering expressions when assignments were forgotten; the innumerable days of retribution with tests, grades, report cards. . . .

Supervising Principal

Mr. Vernon C. Patterson, supervising principal, graduated from East Pike Run High School in California, Pennsylvania and California State Teachers College. In 1939 he received his Masters Degree. He is now doing graduate work at the University of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Patterson taught for six years, 1933-1939, at North Fayette High School, was North Fayette High School Principal from 1939 to 1942, and then North Fayette Supervising Principal 1942 to 1949. He was Assistant Supervising Principal of the West Allegheny Joint School system 1949 to 1955. Since the retirement of Dr. A. D. Wilson on September 1, 1955, he has been Supervising Principal of the West Allegheny Jointure.

Mrs. Grace Drugmand, secretary to the supervising principals of W. A. since two years before the jointure. She graduated from Duff's College and worked at the Dravo Corporation during the war and also Carnegie Steel.

Dr. Miklausen has served as high school principal during the seven years of the jointure.

Faculty

How well we can remember the faculty of twenty-one members, since all but five of the teachers were with us throughout our high school stay.

The faculty member not pictured is Mr. Carleton Dietterich.

The magic number for the faculty was fourteen.

There were fourteen men.

The teachers had an average of fourteen years of teaching experience.

Fourteen members had Master's Degrees.

Finally, fourteen had been with the school since seven years of the jointure or longer.

It was in 1950 that the 180 members which were to compose the Class of 1956 first joined together in the seventh grade. Since they joined together, they have shown their initiative and ingenuity in the various projects they have undertaken. Of the 180 members that had been in seventh grade together, only 170 graduated and proceeded on to the senior high school.

Shortly after entering the senior high in 1953, they pitched industriously into the task of making plans for the annual Soph Hop which was held in November.

After the Soph Hop, the class quieted down until they were in their junior year. Then they vetoed the traditional class jackets and class sweaters.

For the junior class play they chose "Three Fingers in the Door." This play proved to be a success as did their prom which was held in May and which featured a "Paris Cafe" as the theme.

The senior class play, "Mother Is A Freshman", was the most profitable play to be presented in the history of W. A.

The Class of "56" showed their initiative when they decided to have a choral reading at their commencement instead of giving the customary speeches.

Again being different the class took a trip to Washington D. C. and New York City.

The final gesture of the remaining 121 members of the Class of "56" was commencement - May 23.

Activities

We remember hard fought games and heart breaking scores; hearts lifted up with music; the thrills of getting a bull's eye, of eating one's cooking, of being an actor one night; the hundreds of little things that make school.

Key Club

The Key Club is a junior branch of the Oakdale Kiwanis Club. The club is a service organization and serves the community as well as the school.

Each year the Key Club has a district and an international convention. A delegation was sent to the district convention in Reading. The club also held a spaghetti dinner in March, and members attended Kiwanis meetings at various times.

The purpose of the club is to develop initiative, leadership, and service among students. New members are nominated by the club and are chosen by the faculty.

Membership is open to sophomore, junior, and senior boys and the club is sponsored by Dr. Miklausen, a member of the Oakdale Kiwanis Club.

The club succeeded in getting Dick Thomas elected as Lieutenant Governor of Division 3 this year. Pat Allison served as president, Murphy Hallum as vice-president, Don Senovich as secretary-treasurer of the club the past year.

The Student Council, the student governing body of West Allegheny, was formed to establish good government among the students.

Dr. A. J. Miklausen was the sponsor and in the fall of the year, the officers of the Council were chosen. Dick Thomas was chosen president, Beverley Carter, vice-president; Joy Lee Campbell, secretary; and Eileen Sitarik, treasurer. Then, under the leadership of its president, the twenty-eight members of the Council were organized.

During the course of the year, it promoted many activities. One of the foremost projects undertaken by the Council was to establish a place of recreation for the students of W. A. Therefore with that in mind, and with the aid of a Canteen Committee, the Chatterbox came into existence, and was a flourishing success.

Other noteworthy accomplishments of the group was the distribution of handbooks, purchase of records for the school, a clean up campaign, etc.

An assembly was held for the entire school January 3 and a skit was presented which was later performed at the Harrisburg Farm Show January 9 through 11.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association was established to promote athletics among the girls of the school. It was sponsored by Miss Richey and the membership the past year was approximately fifty.

The officers for the year were: president, Suzan Thomson; vice-president, Carmela Sinagoga; secretary, Barbara Mitchell; and treasurer, Judy Hennon.

Among their activities they sold sweat shirts and jerseys with the school insignia. They also sponsored the volleyball tournament, and swam at the Weirton "Y" the first of every month.

A membership of one year and 175 points was required to get a G. A. A. pin. The points were obtained by participation in tournaments and other sports' activities. Each activity counted as a predetermined number of points. If a member continued to belong to the G. A. The F. B. L. A. had a very varied program. The junior members of the club worked in various business offices to get a better outlook of the real business world. A committee was formed to conduct a business survey of last year's graduates. The club handled the publicity for the Senior Class Play and also held an Honorary Tea to install its new Honorary members.

Rifle Club

Leafing through the pages of the present, past and future of the Rifle Club, it has been found that the thirty-nine members have been very active in pursuing a goal of high marksmanship. In the past, complete organization was achieved under the leadership of the sponsor, Mr. Burin. The members of the club are proud to be recognized by the National Rifle Association to which they belong.

During the year the club members participated in interscholastic contests. Practice sessions were held Thursday evenings in addition to the regular club meeting where the club members learned the nomenclature of a rifle and the rules and regulations of the range. The club's activities were depicted in an assembly held in anticipation of the opening of the November hunting season. In addition to the club dues, three dollars and fifty cents per member, the club held a "New Year Round Up", Canteen. The proceeds were used to purchase a new rifle.

Under the leadership of its officers, president, Walter McDermitt; vice-president, Darla Cunningham; secretary, Myrna Heidler; treasurer, Margie Kelso; and executive officer, Wilson Bradburn, the club members tried to sustain higher goals in true marksmanship.

College Club

The College Club, under the supervision of Mr. Flocco, has been in existence for about five years. Its membership was made up of students who intended to continue their education in colleges, schools of nursing, business schools, etc.

Members of the College Club met with former students of West Allegheny, who are continuing their education, to discuss college life. Representatives from various colleges have spoken to the group about their colleges. A testing program was held to test the ability of the student wishing to go to college.

The members of the College Club that planned to become teachers were also members of the Future Teachers of America. Mr. Rohm, sponsor of the group, arranged to have these members observe teachers in the area for practice in their future profession. These members were also called upon from time to time to substitute for absent teachers.

Varsity Cheerleaders

The Varsity Cheerleaders of 1955-56 have done an outstanding job of keeping up the spirit of both athletes and students. Betty Long and Rita Zilaunes, seniors have been Varsity Cheerleaders for two years. The other girls tried out and were chosen by the student body. This year the Varsity Cheerleaders had a new advisor, Miss Richey, physical education teacher.

C. Stringert, Purdy, Pettibon, B. Long, Zilaunes, Wherry.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders of 1955-56 have also done a lot in arousing school spirit. Many girls tried out but only six girls were chosen. Chorus

The senior high chorus is a mixed chorus composed of 130 voices. Similar choruses have been in existence for the last seven years in W. A. under the direction of Mr. Stewart Morgan.

The chorus is a member of the Forensic League and competes in the state contest each year. The aggregation of 1953 competed in the State Finals.

The repertoire of the chorus consists of religious music with some popular semi-classical and spiritual numbers.

The chorus has a student accompanist, even though most of the singing is a cappella.

A Board of Directors, selected by the chorus, formulates the rules, plans performances, and keeps discipline in the large chorus.

Public appearances of the chorus through the year are at assemblies, the Christmas concert, the Spring concert, and scheduled performances away from the school at various other schools, colleges, P.T.A. meetings, etc.

"Mother is a Freshman"

Angel, come to my arms!

The poor old lady, all alone.

You just couldn't be her mother; sister yes, but mother — no.

"Mother Is A Freshman," the Senior Class Play was presented Friday evening, November 18.

The play was a story of a mother, played by Nila Worrell and a daughter, Janis Gloff, who attended the same college. They were both in love with the zoology professor, Chuck Stewart. First it was Nila, then Janis, but finally Mother won out with the professor.

The cast included a group of fun loving college students. This added much flavor to the plot of the play.

Under the direction of Miss Conley, "Mother Is A Freshman" was the most financially successful senior class play ever performed.

Football

With the fall season comes the annual hope of a successful and glorious football season. 1955 was no exception and hopes ran even higher because of the acquisition of a new head football coach, Mr. Ed Grega.

Mr. Grega was given the tedious task of rebuilding the fallen grid forces of W.A. The coach proved to be a good man for the job, but to the astonishment of many people he proved not to be a magician and though his relatively "green" team progressed steadily through the season they were only able to produce a 1-7-1 record.

This season Mr. Basketball was leading scorer of the squad with 357 points or an average of 17 points per game.

Basketball was Pat's game, although he liked all sports. He was also active in other fields in school having served as president of the Key Club.

Also in the running for the title were John Miklaucic and Kermit Hawthorne.
